BIBLE DETECTIVE

See what you can discover for yourself about the background to the readings.

FIRST READING: ACTS (OF THE APOSTLES)
In this reading, the Apostle Peter mentions "the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob." What can you find out about Abraham, Isaac and Jacob? Who were they? When did they live (approximately)? Why were they so important to the Jews?

GOSPEL READING: LUKE
Who were the two people mentioned "who recounted what had taken place on the way"? Find the full story, by reading the earlier part of Chapter 24 of St. Luke's Gospel. To what place had the two men been going, and why?

News & Updates

The Sign of the Cross. How often do you use it? Is it an automatic signing or thoughtful one? We, as Catholics, sometimes just fall in to the routine of doing things. The fourth century Father of the Church St. Basil said that the apostles, "taught us to mark with the sign of the cross those who put their hope in the Lord" the sign we receive at baptism. Over the centuries Christians have signed themselves with small crosses made with the thumb, a single finger or two, even with an open hand in making a large cross. In the ninth century, Christians were marking a large cross with thumb and two fingers together, symbolizing the Trinity, and the ring and little fingers folded into the palm representing Christ two natures, divine and human.

In a late fifteenth century document, taught the Brigittine Sisters of Syon Abbey, England, explained that the movement from forehead to breast meant that Christ came down from heaven to earth in his incarnation. And the movement from the left to right shoulder indicated that Christ at his death descended into hell and then ascended to heaven to sit at the Father's right hand.

In every age Christians commonly used invocations, when signing themselves, like "The sign of Christ", "In the name of Jesus", "In the name of the Holy Trinity" and "In the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" which became the prayer we use today.

We hope that the next time you make the Sign of the Cross, you will stop and think about what is really happening during your signing. Next we will begin our quest to recover the power of this ancient prayer.

Please don't forget to print out your Scholarships applications available on our site KoC12710.org, please don't wait until the last minute, you know how time flies.

May God's blessings and graces fill your hearts,
